3.3: Reflective Questions

1. If a health professional was conducting a complete subjective health assessment of you, what would you want them to do in order to create a safe and comfortable environment?

2. How should you include care partners when conducting a complete subjective health assessment of a client?