Nursing Skills (OpenRN)

This Nursing Skills textbook is an open educational resource developed for entry-level undergraduate nursing students. It is aligned with the Wisconsin Technical College System (WTCS) statewide nursing curriculum for the Nursing Skills course (543-102) that describes techniques for obtaining a health history and performing a basic physical assessment using a body systems approach. It also includes evidence-based clinical skills with related mathematical calculations and conversions.

- Front Matter
- No image available: General Survey
2: Health History

3: Blood Pressure

4: Aseptic Technique

5: Math Calculations

6: Neurological Assessment

7: Head and Neck Assessment
8: Eye and Ear Assessment

9: Cardiovascular Assessment

10: Respiratory Assessment

11: Oxygen Therapy

No image available
12: Abdominal Assessment
No image available
13: Musculoskeletal Assessment
No image available
14: Integumentary Assessment
No image available
15: Administration of Enteral Medications
No image available
16: Administration of Medications Via Other Routes
No image available
17: Enteral Tube Management