Nursing Skills (OpenRN)

This Nursing Skills textbook is an open educational resource developed for entry-level undergraduate nursing students. It is aligned with the Wisconsin Technical College System (WTCS) statewide nursing curriculum for the Nursing Skills course (543-102) that describes techniques for obtaining a health history and performing a basic physical assessment using a body systems approach. It also includes evidence-based clinical skills with related mathematical calculations and conversions.

- Front Matter
- No image available: General Survey

https://med.libretexts.org/Bookshelves/Nursing/Nursing_Skills_(OpenRN)
2: Health History

3: Blood Pressure

4: Aseptic Technique

5: Math Calculations

6: Neurological Assessment

7: Head and Neck Assessment
8: Eye and Ear Assessment

9: Cardiovascular Assessment

10: Respiratory Assessment

11: Oxygen Therapy

12: Abdominal Assessment

13: Musculoskeletal Assessment

14: Integumentary Assessment

15: Administration of Enteral Medications

16: Administration of Medications Via Other Routes

17: Enteral Tube Management
• No image available18: Administration of Parenteral Medications
• No image available19: Specimen Collection
• No image available20: Wound Care
• No image available21: Facilitation of Elimination
• No image available22: Tracheostomy Care and Suctioning
• No image available23: IV Therapy Management
• No image available24: Answer Keys

• Back Matter

Thumbnail: A woman getting her blood pressure tested by a nurse. (Unsplash License; Hush Naidoo via Unsplash)