Building a Medical Terminology Foundation (Carter and Rutherford)

Building a Medical Terminology Foundation is an OER that focuses on breaking down medical terms into their word parts, pronouncing medical terms, and learning the meaning of medical terms within the context of introductory anatomy and physiology. This resource is targeted for health office administration and health services students in the first year of their college programs.

- Front Matter

- 1: Chapters
Back Matter

Thumbnail: Human body (CC BY-SA 4.0; Original by Schnorch and retraced by LadyofHats via Wikipedia)